McHenry County 2030 Comprehensive Plan Public Release

WOODSTOCK, IL - The public is invited to celebrate the release of the long awaited McHenry County 2030 Comprehensive Plan on Thursday, June 17, at 6:30 pm in the McHenry County Administration building conference rooms, located at 667 Ware Road, in Woodstock. The event will include refreshments and feature a short presentation at 7:00 pm by Randy Blankenhorn, Executive Director of the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning, on the importance of planning and regional cooperation.

Tina Hill, Chairperson, County Board Planning & Development Committee, states, "Everyone is invited to attend. We would really like to see those individuals who participated in the development of the 2030 Plan – residents, community leaders, township and municipality officials. It's our way of acknowledging their efforts and of publicly completing the process".

All attendees will be provided a free copy of the Plan on CD-ROM. Printed copies of the Plan will be available for purchase for $30. Major credit cards will be accepted. The Plan is also available for viewing at www.mchenrycounty2030plan.com and can be accessed through the Department of Planning and Development Website at www.co.mchenry.il.us/departments/planninganddevelopment.

The McHenry County Board adopted the 2030 Comprehensive Plan on April 20th following development by the Regional Planning Commission. The three-year planning process involved extensive participation by property owners and residents, community leaders and advocates, and municipal and township officials. The Plan serves as a general guide for the development and redevelopment of the County and for the preservation and enhancement of its natural and agricultural resources.
