Indiana Firm Recalls Frozen Chicken Pot Pie Products May Contain Foreign Materials

Woodstock IL – McHenry County Department of Health is advising residents that Park 100 Foods, Inc., a Kokomo, Ind., establishment, is recalling approximately 19,200 pounds of frozen chicken pot pie products that may contain foreign materials as announced today by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS).

The following product is subject to recall:

- 2.5-pound cartons of "Market Day®, CHICKEN POT PIE, Made with All White Chicken Meat."

Each carton bears a Julian date "28209" which is located on the right side panel, an order number "7138" and the establishment number "P-6882" inside the USDA mark of inspection. The products were produced by Park 100 Foods on October 9, 2009, and were distributed by Market Day through Internet or catalog sales in Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The problem was discovered after Market Day received a customer complaint about finding metal straight pins in the product. FSIS has not received any consumer complaints or reports of injury at this time. Anyone concerned about an injury from consumption of this product should contact a physician.

FSIS routinely conducts recall effectiveness checks to verify recalling firms notify their customers (including restaurants) of the recall and that steps are taken to make certain that the product is no longer available to consumers. Consumers with questions about the recall should contact company Corporate Director of Quality Jim Fish at (317) 853-4280.
